

derrin nauendorf

the rattling wheel

Derrin Nauendorf – Press Release

After a few years touring as a duo with a drummer, then solo; Australian acoustic roots dynamo Derrin Nauendorf (pronounced no-en-dorf) decided to put a band together and make a new album. “The Rattling Wheel” (which is now available in HMV and is being distributed by Pinnacle Entertainments) is Derrin’s 5th album but first commercial release and is a stunning collection of his own compositions performed by top class musicians.

Derrin’s music is hard to categorise as it crosses over all of the genre’s, folk, blues, country, Americana, rock; Raw acoustic sounds and heartfelt lyrics, played with a passion that reaches out to the listener and draws them in.

2006 has been a great year so far for the extremely talented guitarist, singer/songwriter;

- Derrin has recorded a ‘live’ solo session with Bob Harris to be aired on BBC Radio 2 on Nov 25th
- Cambridge University Press are publishing the lyrics to his song ‘Shipwrecked’ in an English teaching guide
- ABC TV in Australia are using Derrin’s song ‘Wasteland’ for a new TV show
- BBC Radio has picked up on the album which is currently enjoying regional and national airplay
- The Rattling Wheel is available from HMV and all good music stores as well as amazon.com and other online stores
- Derrin is a full Yamaha guitars endorsee
- Derrin’s songs are available for download from itunes
- The Rattling Wheel has attracted rave reviews and airplay on many radio stations
- Derrin’s band have recorded a ‘live’ session to be aired on the Paul Jones show on BBC Radio 2 on Nov 30th
- Presence in Mojo, Q, Blues Matters, Maverick and Blues in Britain magazines
- A 4 star album review for ‘The Rattling Wheel’ in the Sunday Express alongside Jools Holland, Tom Waits and The Beatles!

And; all of this has been achieved with no management, record deal or big publicity machine behind him! Derrin is on the verge of even bigger and better things to come, well deserved for a man consumed by music who has more than paid his dues. If you get the opportunity to see Derrin Nauendorf perform live, do not pass it up!

N.B See the downloadable publicity pack for reviews and further information.